C. 18/11/18 Reports

Parish Council representatives on outside bodies

Councillors Mrs S Matthews, Councillor Mrs J Reedman and P Reedman had attended the preview of the 50 Objects for 50 Years Exhibition held by the Ruddington Village Museum on 21st September 2018. Would like to thank Gavin Walker and the volunteers on behalf of the Parish Council for all of their hard work in preserving and promoting the heritage of Ruddington.

Councillor Mrs J Reedman had attended Grenay, France with Ruddington Community Choir and had presented Grenay with the Ruddington Tour of Britain sign from the Twinning Committee

Councillor Mrs M Pell had attended a committee meeting of the History & Amenity Society on 15th October 2018

Councillor Wilson had attended the Ruddington Village Centre Partnership Meeting and advised that 33 businesses had signed up to the Loyalty card. The White Horse were looking to start a market in February 2019, there was a possibility that other pubs would join in. Managed to get a slot with Nottingham Business School students to do a 'thinkubator' on how we can encourage the village centre. The Economic Development & Communication Officers from Rushcliffe are to meet with RVCP to explore how they can start working with Ruddington, other Councillors are welcome to attend. There are now monthly traders meetings for the traders to get together and discuss ideas and co-operate to increase footfall within the village centre.

The meeting closed at 9.19 p.m.
