

ABOUT MR LEO LANZONI

Parish Councillor for Manor Ward

"I am 32 years old and have lived in Ruddington since I was born. I have previously worked at The Country Cottage Hotel and Welcome Finance at Ruddington Fields Business Park. I moved to the Co-op on Church Street in 2006 and have worked there ever since.

I'm a member of Ruddington Community Choir and in the past, I was also part of Ruddington Players / Ruddington Footlights, which used to put on plays and other performances."

Local issues of interest:

"My particular areas of interest include housing, traffic and parking, and protecting our High Street economy. I'm also passionate about promoting our village identity and improving the facilities and activities on offer for young people in Ruddington."

You can contact Leo through the Parish Council Office.
