Decision Notices

A list of recent decision notices was presented to the Committee and the contents noted.

E. 19/02/07 The Rudd

Resolved that: The contract for the production of The Rudd was awarded to Black & Write, with the arrangement to be reviewed in February 2020

PCO

E. 19/02/08 Highway Matters

Resolved that:

a. Camelot Street proposals would be supported. Mere Way proposals to be objected to. Agree with double yellow lines on The Avenue, on the approach to/exit from the Mere Way roundabout and the mini roundabout and at all junctions, suggest single yellow lines would be more appropriate elsewhere with restrictions at times the bus service is running.

PCO

b. No objections to charging for the service but object to withdrawal of service as important for access to West Bridgford, Lings Bar and Rushcliffe Borough Council offices

c. Noted

E. 19/02/09 Ways to Improve the Look and Feel of Ruddington

1. The roads are very dirty, Clerk to check when scheduled cleansing takes place
2. Sandbags are still in place at gateways. Grounds Team are using the contents over time
3. Noticeboard on The Green has out of date items in it. Clerk to check noticeboard
4. Speed limit signs are too dirty to read, to be reported to Highways
5. Christmas Lights, opinion to be requested from Village Centre Partnership
6. Charity shop in village leaving items outside overnight, Clerk to report to police to see if there is anything can be done.
7. Wall at 17 Church Street – wall held up by tape. Planning permission had been requested to re-build, Clerk to check if granted

E. 19/02/10 Other environmental and policy matters for report

Tree Wardens – To place notice on noticeboards requesting volunteers to come forward
