Committee in Session

ES. 19/06/06 75th Anniversary of V E Day 8th to 10th May 2020

A list of suggestions has been produced about the type of events that could be organised for the V E Day celebrations. The list covers a number of areas and it was felt that the Events Sub-Committee could not arrange all of them. It was therefore suggested that a working group needs to be drawn from members of the public who would be able to contribute to organising the festivities.

Annette Auckland has agreed to be the Events Sub-Committee representative on this working group.

The Events Sub-Committee agreed that they would arrange and hold a street party on the Green.

Resolved that: Annette Auckland would be the Event Sub-Committee representative on a working group to organise Events for VE Day celebrations and that the Events Sub-Committee would hold a Street Party on the Green.

ES.19/07/07 Kite Festival

Arrangements will be finalised for the Kite Festival at the next Events Sub-Committee to be held on 20th August 2019.

A poster that Barbara Breakwell had designed was also approved by the Events Sub-Committee.

ES.19/07/08 Summer Fayre

The final arrangements for the Summer Fayre were discussed and it was agreed that items for a hamper for the raffle would be purchased and a budget of £40 was set for this.

Resolved that: items would be purchased for a hamper and the budget set at £40.

ES.19/07/09 Great Get Together

The party held at St Peter's Rooms was very well attended and well received by the visitors. The event on the Green was a little quieter but numbers were swelled by the cricket event on the Green run by the Scouts.

ES. 19/07/10 Christmas Fayre

Annette Auckland and Paul Reedman are to meet with members of the Village Centre partnership to discuss combining the Christmas Fayre with the Christmas Farmer's Market. They will report back at a future Events Sub-Committee.

A further e-mail is to be sent out to stall holders reminding them of the Christmas Fayre Event.
