- Ruddington Colts had not heard from Grenay but were open to visiting in the future
- Keyworth Parish Council had been contacted as the Twinning web page hadn't been updated in some time. No response had been received to date.
- The Mayor of Grenay had been contacted to see if he knew of any twinning activity plans. The Mayor would discuss with others and would let the Chairman know. The Chairman would chase at start of February.

Future actions:

- The Chairman would contact Greg (Grenay football contact) directly.
- Remembrance: The Chairman would ask the current Mayor if he would be attending our Remembrance as he (the current Mayor) is due to stand down mid-year. Cristelle Buissete will become the new Mayor in July.
- It would not be possible to attend both Grenay & Ruddington Remembrance services as they will take place on consecutive days. P McGowan, Mr & Mrs Gadsby and possibly Mr & Mrs Tarlton-Weatherall will attend Grenay's Remembrance Service.
- It was decided that the visitors from Grenay would be taken for a meal on the Saturday evening rather than Remembrance Sunday lunchtime as it was too rushed. Possibly provide a packed lunch for the Sunday. Table to be booked at Gino's for 10 – 15 people if possible
- Member of the Sub Committee to look into visiting Grenay in the summer, the Chairman to email the present Mayor to find out if there are any events to plan a 2 – 3 day stay around.
- Possibly inviting representatives from Grenay to visit during the Kings Coronation

Date of Next Meeting: 21st March 2023 7.30pm St Peter's Rooms
